NARRATIVE:

Cruz, a documented gang member, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include child cruelty with possible injury/death, felon in possession of a firearm, evading a peace officer without regard for safety of others, multiple controlled substance abuse convictions, possession of marijuana for sale and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 2 year term for child cruelty with possible injury/death. Cruz was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 6, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Cruz qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of child cruelty with possible injury/death is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
